

FOOD DRIVE

What is your Why?

A community can unite to gather non-perishable food items for local food banks and homeless shelters. Use these guidelines to kick off a food drive in your neighborhood, church, business, or school:

Supplies & Ideas

- Utilize posters and social media to boost the drive
- Set up boxes or collection bins
- Choose your recipient organization in advance to leverage their support in promoting your food drive!

Step-by-Step

- Choose a location and set dates for item collection
- Prepare labeled boxes or bins for collecting items
- Contribute to a local non-profit organization
