

1/10/2024

Black Hills Volunteer of the Month
Marie Quinn

Rapid City, SD - The Helpline Center congratulates Marie Quinn on being named the January 2024 Black Hills Volunteer of the Month. Tim Schnider with Meals on Wheels nominated Marie.

Marie's commitment to delivering meals every week is truly inspiring. It's heartwarming to see a person who is so dedicated to helping others. She is a dependable volunteer who is always willing to help whenever we are short of drivers. Marie's generosity extends beyond her driving duties, as she is also an excellent trainer who selflessly helps to onboard new volunteers. When Meals on Wheels is short-staffed, Marie is always quick to lend a hand, distributing meals to other volunteers with a smile. Her dedication and willingness to help those in need is truly admirable.

In just 12 months, Marie Quinn has selflessly volunteered an impressive 122 hours with Meals on Wheels, forging deep connections with the seniors she serves and their families. Her dedication and compassion are truly remarkable, and it's evident that her genuine care for others drives her work.

Meals on Wheels is incredibly grateful for Marie Quinn's volunteer service. Tim Schnider stated, "Her exceptional dedication to serving families and improving the community is commendable, and people like her make the world a better place. We are lucky to have her on our team, and we can't thank her enough for her positive impact on us and our community."

The Helpline Center of the Black Hills congratulates Marie Quinn on receiving this well-deserved recognition. As a token of appreciation for her dedicated volunteer service, the Helpline Center of the Black Hills presented Marie Quinn with a Volunteer of the Month certificate and a letter from Mayor Salamun.

For information on volunteer opportunities, please call the Helpline Center at 211 or visit volunteer.helplinecenter.org.

